INFORMATION FOR THE FULLER COMMUNITY
FIRST WEEK, WINTER QUARTER

JANUARY 7-11, 1991

Welcome Back to Fuller, 1991

You know how when the new year begins right when you just got used to writing 1990 on your checks and suddenly it's a new quarter and you haven't even begun that incomplete you vowed you would finish before the first day of school and now one week after the Christmas you couldn't afford you need to buy books you can't afford and you're not even past the first three chapters in that relaxing, non-required novel you've been waiting since last summer to read and you revise the wording on last year's resolutions so that it doesn't really feel like you have the same old ones and then there's all those people you said you'd surely have time to get together with since you had a month off school who are still waiting by their phones for you to call and now it's time to begin Winter Quarter 1991. I hate it when that happens.

Of course, maybe I'm the only one who struggles a little coming into Winter Quarter. I'm thankful that God's grace is big enough to carry me through my weaknesses and patient enough to wait for me to surrender my "trying harder" so that I can rest in His love, trusting Him to bring me deeper into His heart. I know that's really the bottom line for getting through Seminary...and life.

Speaking of getting through Seminary, that's the real reason I'm writing. On behalf of The Office Of Student Services (OSS), I'd like to welcome you back (or for the first time if you're just beginning) to Fuller Seminary. The OSS is located above the Catalyst, on the second floor. We are here Monday through Friday, 8 to 5, to answer your questions and offer suggestions about getting through Fuller easier. We handle student health insurance and student activities through our office. We also publish the Semi.

Which reminds me....I encourage you to write into the new Editorial section of the Semi. We would like to get in touch with your concerns. Editorials and opinions about various issues concerning Fuller folks will be published each week. Also, to maintain some semblance of community, please let me know when you get married, have a baby, or are involved in an activity which the entire community might enjoy taking a part in or hearing about. Contact me (Vicki Luna) at 584-5430 or drop a letter to FTS Box OSS.

May God bless you with a fruitful and peaceful quarter as your love increases in knowledge and depth of insight (just like in Philippians 1:9).

Office of Christian Community

Interaction Tutoring: The Office of Christian Community, in conjunction with two urban churches in Pasadena, works to help inner city children get tutored in their math and English. These churches need volunteers. If you are free Mondays 6-7 p.m. or Tuesdays 5:30-7 p.m. and are willing to serve/minister for one quarter, call OCC at 584-5322 for more information.

Sexuality Seminars: The Office of Christian Community is offering two seminars by Dr. Donald Joy this quarter. Call 584-5322 for more information.

Sexuality in the 1990's Marriage is an opportunity for couples to explore their own sexuality and learn how it is impacted by one's family of origin, church, and even spouse (or fiancé). The seminar will be held Saturday, January 12, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Singleness & Sexuality in the 1990's As more people delay marriage, avoid it, or simply choose not to marry, Christians may find themselves wondering, "Why wait till marriage to have sex? Is sex necessary to be a complete person? How does my family and church's view affect my sexuality?" The seminar is on Tuesday, January 15 from 7:30-9:30 p.m.

Get Involved!
